

Notice of Nondiscrimination

The Washington State Department of Children, Youth, and Families (DCYF) does not discriminate, exclude, harass, deny service to, or treat people differently on the basis of race, creed/religion, color, national origin (including preferred language), sex, pregnancy, gender identity, sexual orientation, disability status (including use of a dog guide or service animal), citizenship or immigration status, honorably discharged veteran or military status, or status as a breastfeeding mother, or any other class protected under federal, Washington state or applicable local laws.

We provide free modifications, aids, and services for persons with disabilities. If you need these services, contact dcyf.adaaccessibility@dcyf.wa.gov. Examples include:

- Qualified sign language interpreters
- Written information in alternate formats, such as large print, electronic, audio, and braille

We provide free language services for persons who prefer to speak or write in a language other than English. If you need these services, contact dcyf.languageaccess@dcyf.wa.gov. Services include:

- Qualified interpreters
- Translations of documents, forms, and information into other languages

If you believe that DCYF has failed to provide these services or has discriminated against you on the basis of race, creed/religion, color, national origin (including preferred language), sex, pregnancy, gender identity, sexual orientation, disability status (including use of a dog guide or service animal), citizenship or immigration status, honorably discharged veteran or military status, or status as a breastfeeding mother, please fill out a complaint form at <https://www.dcyf.wa.gov/service-access>.

If you need help filling out the complaint form or if you have questions, please contact the DCYF Service Access and Civil Rights Program:

- Call: (360) 407-5511 or toll free at 1-866-731-3202
- Email: dcyf.civilrightscomplaints@dcyf.wa.gov
