

Finally!

Affordable, Accessible
Child Care.

High-quality child care
for no more than $165 a month.

Free or low-cost child care is now available for qualified families in Washington.

The cost is no more than $165 a month for families and parents who are students and even includes afterschool programs.

Once approved, you're good for an entire year. The Washington State Department of Children, Youth & Families even has over-the-phone help in multiple languages to guide you through the application process. Just call (844) 626-8687.
