Washington State Department of
CHILDREN, YOUTH & FAMILIES

With your help, communities are creating stronger supports for families and children.

Join parents, volunteers, community agencies, schools, tribes, and the Washington State Department of Children, Youth, and Families in building stronger, healthier communities and families. The Strengthen Families Locally project seeks to increase family and community resilience to prevent child maltreatment and foster care entry in four communities.

Are You Interested in Participating?

We're looking for parents and community voices in this project. If so, please contact:
