

Foster Parents Needed For TEENS

30% of youth experiencing foster care are teens.

Become a Foster Parent for a teen or young adult and support their journey to adulthood

Individuals and families are needed to support children and youth in your community.

Access to High-Quality Training

Monthly Reimbursement

Retention Respite

Mentoring Support & Resources

Washington State Department of
CHILDREN, YOUTH & FAMILIES

TO LEARN MORE ABOUT FOSTERING :

CALL: 1-888-KIDS-414

VISIT: dcyf.wa.gov/become-a-foster-parent

FOLLOW: @FutureFosterParentsWA

DCYF does not discriminate and provides equal access to its programs and services for all persons without regard to race, color, gender, religion, creed, marital status, national origin, sexual orientation, age, veteran's status, or presence of any physical, sensory, or mental disability.

If you would like free copies of this publication in an alternative format or language, please contact DCYF Constituent Relations at 1-800-723-4831 or email communications@dcyf.wa.gov.

DCYF PUBLICATION LIC_0121 (02-2023)